A SHORT SUMMARY OF FRIDAY SERMON Rightly Guided Caliphs – Hazrat Uthman(ra) - The Possessor of Two Lights

His Holiness(aba) said that the Holy Prophet(sa) married his daughter Ruqayyah to Hazrat Uthman(ra), however she passed away during the days of the Battle of Badr. Afterwards, the Holy Prophet(sa) gave another one of his daughters, Umm Kulthum, to Hazrat Uthman(ra) in marriage. Thus, Hazrat Uthman(ra) was also known as Dhun-Noorain. His Holiness(aba) said that once, Hazrat Uthman(ra) went to meet the Holy Prophet(sa) along with Hazrat Talhah bin Ubaidillah(ra). The Holy Prophet(sa) took the opportunity to preach to them the true message of Islam, upon which both accepted Islam and attested to the truthfulness of the Holy Prophet(sa). Hazrat Uthman(ra) told the Holy Prophet(sa) that he had just returned from Syria, where one night, he had heard someone calling out, saying that Ahmad had manifested in Makkah. Then when he returned to Makkah, he heard of the Holy Prophet's (sa) claim and thus went to meet him. Thus, Hazrat Uthman(ra) accepted Islam even before the time of Dar-e-Arqam. His Holiness(aba) said that Hazrat Uthman(ra) and his wife, Hazrat Ruqayyah(ra) were known for their great beauty. Once, the Holy Prophet(sa) visited their home, and the Holy Prophet(sa) said to his daughter, that she should take great care of Hazrat Uthman(ra), for amongst his companions, Hazrat Uthman(ra) resembled his moral qualities the most.
